

Mr. McCulloch moved to take up a bill to provide for the safe keeping of the Capitol and furniture and to define the duties of the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, with the message of the Governor, vetoing the same.

Mr. Weatherford moved a call of the Senate—lost.

The bill and message was then taken up, and the Senate refused to pass the bill by the following vote :

YEAS—Messrs. Flanagan, Hill, Hord, McCulloch, McDade, Martin, Palmer, Pedigo and Superviele—9.

NAYS—Messrs. Allen, Armstrong, Bryan, Burroughs, Caldwell, Grimes, Guinn, Maverick, Russell, Scarborough, Truit, Weatherford and Whitaker—13.
